

Parents Eligible to Serve on Council

Parents Eligible:

A parent is eligible to serve on council if they are a biological parent, a step-parent, or a foster parent of a student; or a person who has legal custody of a student pursuant to a court order and with whom the student resides.

This includes a parent of any student preregistered for the school year that the parent will serve (i.e., entering kindergarten, entering middle school and entering high school).

Parents Not Eligible:

- Employee or relative of an employee at the school
- Employee or relative of an employee at the district administrative offices
- A local board of education member or member's spouse

Relative- father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son, daughter, aunt, uncle, son-in-law and daughter-in-law*

Examples:

- Substitutes cannot serve as parent or teacher member because they are considered a district employee since they are getting paid by the district (unless they don't sub at that particular school).
- The daughter of a local board member can serve as a parent member because only the spouse of a local board member can't serve.
- A school nurse that is paid 50% by the local health department and 50% by the district cannot serve as a parent member because they are considered a district employee.
- A volunteer assistant volleyball coach can serve as a parent member because they are not getting paid.
